ABSTRACT. In $L_p$ for $0 \leq p < 1$, we classify a large collection of subspaces as admissible kernels, meaning that each subspace is the kernel of some continuous linear automorphism on $L_p$ for $0 \leq p < 1$. We then show that this result eliminates those subspaces as potential rigid subspaces.