

ABSTRACT. We introduce the notion of generators of shy sets in Polish topological vector spaces and give their various interesting applications. In particular, we demonstrate that this class contains specific measures which naturally generate implicitly introduced subclasses of shy sets. Moreover, such measures (unlike  $\sigma$ -finite Borel measures) possess many interesting, sometimes unexpected, geometric properties.